

UGITIVE DRAWS "JIMMY" AND IS WINGED BY POLICE

Pursuers Thought Negro Was About to Fire on Them
After Robbery.

After an exciting chase for an alleged burglar, during which about ten pistol shots were fired, this afternoon a fugitive was captured at the corner of Central Park West and Sixty-seventh street with a shot from a policeman's revolver through his right arm.

The prisoner, a negro, gave his name as Frank Williams and his address as No. 14 West One Hundred and Thirty-seventh street. He was locked up in the West Sixty-eighth street station on a charge of attempted burglary.

George Harris, a negro, was asleep in an apartment on the fourth floor of No. 14 West Sixty-sixth street this afternoon when he was awakened by the knocking of a dog in the flat. Looking into the front room he saw a man running about the bureau drawers. The man saw him the same time and ran.

Just as he started to cross the avenue, Policemen McGuire, Grossberger and Carthy tried to head him off. The man was off duty.

As the police ran through the street toward Columbus Avenue, Grossberger fired four shots in the air. The fugitive turned in his flight to Columbus Avenue, turning north to Sixty-seventh street, where he again turned and ran toward Central Park West.

Then the negro picked something from a pocket which looked like a revolver and one of the policemen fired a shot at him. The shot struck the negro in the right arm and he gave up.

The object which the negro took from a pocket was found to be a "jimmy," a tool used by burglars to pick locks. He was taken to the West Sixty-eighth street station, where he was attended by a surgeon. His wound is trifling.

JOHN B. McDONALD LEFT HIS FORTUNE TO WIDOW.

Document Signed Less Than Two Months Ago—Only Daughter
Satisfied With Provisions.

The will of John B. McDonald, the subway builder, who died March 17, was read for probate today in the Surrogate's office. McDonald's entire estate, both personal and real, is stated in the petition to be "over $100,000" and is left to his widow, Georgie Annie McDonald, who is also made executrix.

The will is dated Jan. 31, 1911, and was witnessed by Theodore Heller of No. 2 West One Hundred and Third street, the Foley of No. 42 West One Hundred and Sixteenth street, and Carrie Brown of No. 1 West Seventy-second street. Mr. McDonald's home, Mrs. Georgie McDonald Reed, Mr. McDonald's daughter, who lived with him, testified in the customary appended affidavit that the provisions of the will are satisfactory to her.

BODY OF BABY IN PARCEL CHECKED IN GRAND CENTRAL

Was Left There Feb. 27—Second Dead Baby at Station Within Three Weeks.

Opening a package that had been checked in the parcel room of the Grand Central Station Feb. 27 this afternoon, James Gradell, a clerk, discovered that it contained the body of a newborn baby. The body had been wrapped in a towel and a piece of oiled cloth. The body was sent to the Morgue. This is the second dead baby found in a check room at that station within three weeks.

STAKEHOLDER CONVICTED UNDER NEW BETTING LAW.

Former Manager of Hotel Albany
Held Wagers on Jeffries-Johnson
Fight Too Tightly.

The first conviction under the new law making a stakeholder in a gambling transaction liable to prosecution for the commission of a misdemeanor was had today in the Court of Special Sessions. Roy Salt, formerly manager of the Hotel Albany, was found guilty of violating the law by Justice Russell, Hays and Hoyt.

The evidence showed that on July 4 last a delegation of negroes, headed by Joseph Robinson, an opulent lawyer, invaded the Albany and proclaimed their willingness to bet on the chances of Jack Johnson whipping Jim Jeffries.

Salt, alleging that he held $1,000 Jeffries money, took $700 against that amount from the delegation.

When the news came in the evening that Johnson had won Robinson and his crowd entered the front door of the Albany so vehemently that they almost went through the back wall. Salt demanded a commission for holding the stakes. An argument resulted, in the course of which Salt accused himself. He was next heard of in Buffalo. The negro sports wanted to bring suit to get their money back, but they could not recover a gambling debt, so they brought the criminal complaint. Salt was arrested and brought back for trial.

He will be sentenced on Monday.

MONEY AROUND HIS ANKLES.

Dead Man With Cash Hidden in Thought Robber's Victim.

TOLEDO, O., March 22.—With $100 in bills wrapped around the left ankle under the sock and $50 in a similar position around the right ankle, the body of a middle-aged man, who is thought to have been N. E. Hilliard of Oil City, Okla., was found at the bottom of Swan Creek last night.

Although no marks of violence were found on the body, circumstances in connection with the case indicate that the man may have been waylaid near the creek by robbers who, after rifling his pockets, threw him into the water. Aside from the money wrapped around his ankles nothing of value was found in the dead man's possession.

42-YEAR-OLD CLAIM RECOGNIZED BY COURT.

Justice Newburger Orders Testimony Taken in Ohio and Idaho in Kinneally Case.

John Kinneally, a miner of Idaho City, Idaho, won his first move to claim the estate of William A. Kinneally, which has been in value under the stewardship of the Attorney-General's office during the last forty-two years, when Justice Newburger today allowed him to take testimony of witnesses in his home city, Cleveland, O., and Boise City, Idaho, and his kinship to the wealthy former Brooklynite.

This estate has been the subject of litigation forty-two years. More than a hundred persons have tried to establish rights to the Government bonds and Williamsonburg real estate left by Kinneally. His will created a trust for the benefit of his heirs, but this document was an aside, which left the estate to be administered as that of an intestate. Kinneally's property was valued at his death at $50,000.

Former Deputy Attorney-General Turner called it the "rotten case" of the Attorney-General's office.

DR. ALEXANDER'S WILL.

Estate to Mother in Trust—Citi-zian Records to Be Destroyed.

The will of Dr. Samuel Alexander, a famous pathologist, who was instructor at the Cornell Medical College, and who died at his home, No. 6 West Fifty-eighth street, on Nov. 6, 1910, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office today. The bulk of his estate is left in trust, the testator's mother, Mrs. Susan Alexander, to receive the income quarterly.

Dr. Alexander directed that his case books and clinical records, from which he wrote several important text books on pathology and anatomy, be given to John J. McCook, who is instructed to destroy them. The records cover Dr. Alexander's discoveries in his treatment of hundreds of patients. His surgical instruments are left to the college where he was an instructor.

SEEKS TO ANNUL MARRIAGE. 21 YEARS OLD, OF SISTER.

Says Husband Knew Bride Was Insane and Wants $15,000 Estate Taken From Him.

A suit was begun in the Supreme Court today by Miss Kate J. Meekins of Mount Vernon to annul the marriage of her sister, Mary A. Kinneally, and Richard A. Kinneally, which took place twenty-one years ago, on the ground that the wife was insane at the time.

Miss Meekins declares her sister lived with Kinneally only six months, that she was then sent to an asylum at White Plains, and has since remained there.

she alleges Kinneally knew her sister was of unsound mind when he married her.

According to Miss Meekins, Mrs. Kinneally had property and securities worth $15,000 when she was married to Kinneally. Miss Meekins does not think Kinneally is entitled to have possession of this property.

Kinneally alleges in fighting the suit that Miss Meekins cannot move for the annulment after a lapse of so many years.

Duck Shooting Bill Defeated.

Freckle-Face

New Remedy That Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling. Simply get a ounce of this—double strength—Freckle-Face or Huggan's and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself forever of the unsightly freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask Hiker's or Huggan's for the double strength ointment as this is the only preparation sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

COLE PLEADS NOT GUILTY; TO TEST HEALING LAW.

White Vernon Cole, the Christian Science healer who was indicted yesterday for practicing medicine without a license, appeared before Judge John Bryan in the Court of General Sessions today and pleaded not guilty.

Former District Attorney Jerome accompanied Cole and made the plea. Mr. Jerome had no comment to make save that his client courted a trial in order that a test could be made of the law under which he was indicted. The hearing was continued on parole in the custody of his counsel.

Morgan Sees Rome's Art Exhibit.

ROME, March 22.—J. Pierpont Morgan, as President of the Foreign Committee, accompanied by Count di San Martino, President of the Committee of the Exhibition, today visited the scene of the International Art Exhibit, which will be formally opened next Monday by King Victor Emmanuel, in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the proclamation of Rome as the capital of United Italy. They were received at the American pavilion by Harrison S. Morris, the United States Commissioner.

A Preventive of Tea Kettle Scale

Every housewife who lives where water is hard, knows how the lime and other salts form a coating on the inside of the kettle. This may be largely prevented, and the outside of the tea kettle kept free from soot and grease, by washing thoroughly inside and outside every day or so, with hot water and Gold Dust.

The hard lime and other salts are dissolved by the Gold Dust and the inside of the kettle will be kept smooth much longer if thus cared for. Be sure to rinse thoroughly with clear warm water, then refill with cold water for heating.
